MISS FRANCES WILLARD'S ADDRESS

to call to the attention of congress and the president as strongly as possible the immense polygraph petition which has arrived in Washington after a long journey around the world, and now, it is asserted, bears the signature of more than 3,000,000 people of all nationalities.

A good attendance greeted the opening session, which began with the singing of hymns, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. M. E. Griffin, president of the District Women's Christian Temperance Union, to which Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman, the recording secretary, then introduced

Since protection is the key word of the laborer's work. Manufacturers seek the relief for the purpose of protection to increase their profit and infant trades unions are founded to protect the wage worker from the aggressions of capital, and cartels and monopolies to protect from encroachment of competition; but ten thousand groups of loyal hearted mothers and wives, sisters and daughters have organized for the purpose of acting in an organized capacity as protectors of the laborer, the tempted youth and the little ditions in the last twenty years, ag-gates not fewer than fifteen millions of souls—probably twenty millions. I praise the polyglot petition work because it has afforded a nucleus around which a woman may rally. Because we are not we have come to the capital of our land to present this petition first of the country in which it originated, which has sent out all the white missionaries who have secured its circulation in foreign countries. We present it to members of the United States Senate and house of representatives, and next to a select hearing, with the petitioners, before committees of both bodies.

It is fitting that as this petition has grown from first to last the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance society, the president and vice president of society should speak at this first of great meetings to be held in connection with its presentation to the various committees. Our English leader, Lady Somerset, will speak on behalf of those in her own land and throughout the world. The greatest number of names, commitments and attestations has been gathered in our country, and next to our land of Britain.

As we know the largest petition presented, except our "polyglot," was the British Chartists in 1831, asking the repeal of the corn laws. This

At the close of the reading of Miss Willard's address Miss Belle Kearney delivered an address to men. She was followed by Dr. Leann, of London, and Mrs. Baker, the national treasurer of the union. The readings closed with an address by Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman.

The house considered the naval appropriation bill and devoted the day to a general debate. The bill carries $31,875,000, and authorizes the construction of some new lines of battle ships, and twelve torpedo boats. The features of the bill provoking for the new ships were antagonized by Messrs. Simpson, Hall and Everett, who were supported by Messrs. Talbot, Oliver, Pendleton, Money, Woodcock and others. It is expected that a vote will be taken on Monday.

Wash your hair
and head with Pearline, and see how refreshing and comforting it is. A Pearline shampoo, even if you don't take it very often, will keep the scalp beautifully clean and healthy. Don't use too much. Not that there's any harm in it, but it'll take too long to wash the suds off, and you might grumble about that.

Use your Pearline in the bath. You'll feel invigorated after it. It's very much like a Turkish or a Russian bath—except that it costs almost nothing, and that you take it at home, without any trouble or fuss.

Beware
Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

CHINA'S CREDIT STILL GOOD.

This Is Due to the Effort of Sir Robert Hart, an Irishman.

In the war with Japan China has been beaten at every point, but despite her continued reverses and the fact that three great Japanese armies are now threatening Peking, her credit abroad remains unimpaired. This confidence in the ability of China to fulfill her obligations is due to the energy and ability of an Irishman, Sir Robert Hart, K. C. M. G., who for over 30 years has been inspector general of the imperial maritime customs service of China. Sir Robert was born at Portadown, Ireland, in 1835, and was graduated from the Queen's college, Belfast, in 1853. He went to China a year later as student interpreter in the British consular service in China and was secretary for the allied commission for the government of Canton in 1858.

A year later he joined the Chinese customs service and soon rose to the highest office in the service under the Tsung-li-Yamen. He built up the coast light service from three to four lights to over 70 in 20 years and has vastly improved the collection of customs and the resources of the Chinese government. He was president of the Chinese commission to the international exhibitions at Vienna in 1873, at Philadelphia in 1876 and at Paris in 1878.

During his long service in China he has received almost as many buttons, feathers, plumes and jackets as Li Hung Chang and seems to be much more successful in retaining them than the famous Chinese statesman, who is now in eclipse. In 1861 he was elevated to the civil rank of the Third Class, in 1869 he was raised to the Second Class, in 1881 he was favored with the Red Button of the First Class, and four years later was invested with the Order of the Double Dragon and the Peacock's Feather. In 1889 the Chinese government went still further and honored him as no other foreigner had ever been honored before, it is said. He was favored with the Ancestral Rank of the First Order of the First Class for three generations. Belgium, Sweden, Norway, Austria, France, Portugal, England and other countries have also decorated him.

THE DUKE OF ARGYLL.

He Has Long Been One of the Ablest Men in British Public Life.

The Duke of Argyll, who recently retired from politics, is without doubt one of the ablest statesmen and orators in Great Britain. For over a quarter of a century he has been in the very front rank in English public life, and next to Gladstone has had the longest and most noteworthy career of any one in English parliamentary circles. He is now 71 years of age and succeeded to his title in 1847. He was a brilliant scholar in his student days, and no man in college was more interested in acquiring knowledge and culture than George Douglas Campbell, who was destined to be the eighth Duke of Argyll and head of the great Campbell clan in Scotland. Although he is an advanced Liberal, he has long been the intimate friend and adviser of the queen, and his son, the Marquis of Lorne, married Princess Louise, one of Queen Victoria's daughters, in 1871.

In 1892 he was created a duke of the United Kingdom, and among his numerous offices are those of hereditary master of the household in Scotland, hereditary sheriff of Argyllshire, lord lieutenant of Argyllshire and chancellor of the University of St. Andrew's. He has been lord rector of the University of Glasgow, postmaster general, three times lord privy seal, secretary of state for India and president of the council for India.

In 1881 he was lord privy seal in Gladstone's cabinet, but resigned because he differed with Gladstone regarding several provisions of the Irish land bill. As an author the duke has been famous for 50 years. His "Reign of Law" and "Princely Men" are classics, and he has written enough on the Scotch church, evolution and on the question of landlord and tenant to fill a whole bookshelf. He despises the illiterate aristocracy, and owing to his brusque, domineering and arrogant ways is very unpopular. Inverary castle, the chief seat of the Argyll family, is the principal baronial residence of the Western highlands. The duke owns 175,111 acres of land, with an annual rental roll of about $250,000. The Marquis of Lorne, the prospective Duke of Argyll, has not inherited many of his father's characteristics.

A BULL ON A FLY ROD.

LIVELY EPISODE OF A DAY'S FISHING IN CALIFORNIA.

The Red Shawl of One of the Ladies in the Party Started the Fun, and the Skillful Angler Caught an Exhibition Not Common on a Troutling Trip.

"Traveling overland from Santa Barbara to San Luis Obispo," said a tourist recently returned from southern California, "our journey as far as Los Olivos was by stage. Of the beautiful land and water scenery along the route of our stage two features particularly impressed me. One was the backward view from the summit of the coast mountains, with Santa Barbara, 12 miles back, clustered on the left and right of its white Main street, the islands beyond and the blue Pacific.

"The second was the river that we forded shortly before arriving at Los Olivos. It was a type of water course common in California, with a wide, deep bed, perfectly dry, except where a clear little stream rippled its way along a narrow channel through sand and gravel, winding and eddying round bars and boulders. A man might leap across it in many places, and the water did not come nearly to the wheel hubs as the stage rolled through it.

"At Los Olivos, which we reached at 5 o'clock p. m., one of the dishes served at our excellent supper was trout, caught, as we learned, in the pretty, clear stream we had crossed. That determined us to stay over a day at the station to try the fishing. We got out our tackle and had a day of great sport. To reach the water we had to get down the steep river banks and follow the dry bed through which the little stream seemed to pick its way. The trout we caught were of the black spotted mountain variety, ranging from 6 to 14 inches in length and averaging about three to the pound. Smaller ones we put back in the water.

"But there was an experience more exciting than fishing to come before the day was ended. At noon the ladies of our party came by wagon to join us at luncheon, and they accompanied us in the afternoon's fishing. Toward night, when we had worked well up toward the mountains, some cattle came down to the stream to drink, and without apparent provocation a lively young bull began to paw the ground and bellow unpleasantly and followed these demonstrations up by charging upon our party. Looking up from my fishing at this juncture, I saw that it was the red plaid shawl of one of the ladies that had excited the animal's hostility. Calling to her to throw down the shawl and for them all to run, I threw stones at the bull to divert his attention, while the other gentlemen of the party helped them up the steep bank, where the bull could not follow. The bull stopped at the shawl, tossed it about in an ugly manner, and then, turning his attention to me, gave me a sharp run across the sands to the bank. I got there all right, carrying my rod, with the line and leader flying behind, but just as I struck the top of the bank I felt a sudden jerk of the rod's tip, and turning saw that one of my fly hooks had caught the bull in the nostril.

"It was one of the queerest catches I imagine that ever a fisherman made, and I literally played that bull with a fly rod for a quarter of an hour. I owed him no good will, and besides I wanted to save my tackle. The nostril of a bull, as you probably know, is exquisitely sensitive to pain, and with my strong, flexible split bamboo rod, duplicating reel and stout gut leader at the end of a hundred feet of braided silk I managed to hold the big creature under control. He couldn't seem to make out what had got him by the nose, but he knew that it hurt him worse whenever he tried to break away, and to increase the mystery there was all the time dangleing and switching before his eyes a big, bright red bauble that I had left on my leader as an experiment in trout fishing. He would strike at it with his horns, and his rage at finding he couldn't hit it, and that it came back at him every time, was comical to witness—from a place of safety, of course.

"From time to time the bull would charge upon the shawl and toss that about, and then I had to work the reel and tip for all they were worth to save all my tackle from going by the board. At last, in one of these furious charges, as he lifted the shawl on his horns I felt something give away, and at the same moment the shawl went up into the air. The hook had torn loose from his nostril, and two of the hooks on the leader were fast in the shawl. I dropped the rod and pulled line and shawl in, hand over hand, like a Cape Cod fisherman hauling pellock. The bull didn't tumble to the situation until I had got the shawl nearly to the bank, and then he came for it, but it was too late. I whipped the shawl up to where we were standing just as his head butted the perpendicular bank with a thud that brought down a shower of earth.

"The shawl carried a good deal of sand and had some holes in it, but there was no disposition to complain on the part of its owner. We thought we had enough fishing for one day, and leaving our enemy down in the river bed pawing sand and bellowing his anger we took our wagon thankfully for the hotel."—New York Sun.

The Crimson Cliff.

One of the most conspicuous landmarks, or, rather, snowmarks, in the whole of the arctic regions is the red snowbanks discovered near Cape York, Greenland, by Captain John Ross in the year 1818. For miles and miles the hills are covered with snow that is as red as though it had been saturated with blood. Lieutenant Greely, who visited that region while on his famous arctic expedition, microscopically examined these blood stained hills and reports the color due to a minute organism which he calls Protococcus nivalis.—St. Louis Republic.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osceola,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Anchor, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

RULES FOR OBSERVING LENT.

Restrictions by Which the Roman Catholics of the Archdiocese Will Be Governed.

The rules and observances for Lent have been sent to the clergy of the Archdiocese by Archbishop Corrigan and they will be read to the congregations of all the churches to-morrow. They are as follows:

All the week days of Lent from Ash Wednesday, Feb. 27th, to Easter Sunday, April 14th, are fast days of precept, on one meal, with the allowance of a moderate collation in the evening.

The church excuses from the obligation of fasting (but not of abstinence from flesh meat except in special cases of sickness) the infirm, those who are attaining their growth, those whose duties are of an exhausting or laborious character, women in pregnancy or nursing infants, and those who are enfeebled by illness.

The usual dispensations are granted. They permit the use of flesh meat, eggs and white meat on the Sundays in Lent and at the principal meal on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, except Ember Saturday and Holy Saturday; the use of white meats every day at the evening collation and at the principal meal on which the use of flesh meat is forbidden; the use of dripping and lard in the preparation of the kinds of food permitted.

NOTHING LIKE IT.

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy Makes Another Remarkable Cure.

From the Times-Union, Albany, N. Y.

Four years ago, Mrs. Markham, who resides on First street, corner of North Swan, noticed a serious spot on her left limb. It was apparently nothing serious, but soon developed into a sore, and before long the sore was a mass of ulcers. Mr. Markham employed some of our best physicians, a dozen or more in all, but she obtained no relief. In fact, was told that nothing could be done for her, so for four years she suffered with these dreadful ulcers, which had eaten their way to the bone.

A little less than a year ago, an acquaintance told her about Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and that he believed she would find relief in using it. Mrs. Markham's four years of suffering had made her skeptical, the more so, as she had obtained no relief from any of the numerous physicians who had attended her during these years of suffering.

The friend offered to send her a bottle of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy if she would try it. He did so, and there was such a decided improvement that she concluded to give the remedy a fair test. To-day, not quite a year after taking the first dose, the ulcers have disappeared, all that is left to show what she has suffered is a swelling on the ankle of the left limb, which is fast disappearing.

Mrs. Markham is naturally strong in her praises of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and feels that but for it she would now be a helpless cripple, if not a corpse.

Such a straightforward endorsement needs no comment. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cures diseases when taken according to directions. It acts directly upon the kidneys, liver and blood. In cases of nervousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism, ulcers, old sores, blood poisoning, and Bright's disease, it has made pronounced cures after all other treatments have failed.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

VREELAND'S MINSTRELS.

To-night's Attraction at the Casino. The Bangor Commercial says of Vreeland's Minstrels, to be presented at the Casino, this evening.

Vreeland's Minstrels gave two performances at the Opera House, yesterday. The matinee was well attended and the performance was greatly enjoyed. The evening performance was witnessed by a big crowd. The show was a very good one. There were some good singers and the dancing, especially that of Larry McEvoy's work, was the finest ever seen here. The other specialties included a wonderful club swinging act by Al. Newton, a grotesque contortion act by Dick Vonder and a fine acrobatic song and dance by Barry and Sullivan.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

CRIST GROUND BY THE MACHINE.

Major Stanbury's Automatic Convention Regulator Works Like a Charm—The Results of Its Attempt at Making Republican Nominations.

It was evident, Thursday evening, from the proceedings of the Republican ward caucuses that a machine had been rigged up that gave promise of doing its work with neatness and dispatch.

Last night the automatic device was put in operation at Judge Powell's office and given its first public trial.

Unlike most new machinery, it worked perfectly from the moment Engineer Stanbury took hold of the lever; nary a cog slipped; and there was absolutely no friction except when the time came to nominate a candidate for City Treasurer, but the engineer applied a lubricant, put on a little more steam and the slight creaking of the machine was heard no more.

Many prominent Republicans who witnessed its work were loud in their praises of the new machine, and the few Democrats who were present were filled with admiration and envy. The Mayor's machine managed its convention in this way:

D. F. Seward, Esq., was made Chairman, W. F. Bailey, Secretary and A. L. Decker and B. F. Todd tellers.

An informal ballot was taken for City Treasurer, not that a ballot was necessary for the machine had been regulated to grind out the name of W. E. Robertson, but it was known that Charles Z. Taylor had been promised the nomination for two years in succession and had persisted in demanding that the promise be kept even after he knew the boss had decreed otherwise and for the sake of appearances a ballot was ordered. The result of the informal ballot was as follows:

W. E. Robertson ..... 19
C. Z. Taylor ..... 15
A. J. Hornbeck ..... 1
A. J. Robertson ..... 1

On the formal ballot Mr. Robertson received 24 and Mr. Taylor 12 votes. It was known, Thursday night, that the machine had named W. E. Rogers for Water Commissioner, but some Republicans had the audacity to attempt to nominate another man. Merely to humor the boys and at the same time show them how neatly the automatic device could do its work, a ballot was taken. Mr. Rogers received 21 votes, A. J. Hornbeck 10 and the remainder were scattered. Mr. Hornbeck did not propose to try conclusions with the Mayor, and very promptly declined, and Mr. Rogers was named by acclamation.

For Assessor, W. E. McWilliams had been slated and on the informal ballot received 28 votes, and his nomination was made by acclamation.

For Constables Judge Powelson named Chas. W. Faulkner and Hiram A. Knapp, and all agreed to their nomination.

For members of the Board of Education, the names of Josiah A. Howell, Valentine N. Powell, B. S. Dayton, E. T. Hanford, James G. Harding, Frank B. Denton and H. W. Wiggins were presented. Mr. Powell was named by Major Sproat, who was very promptly informed by Ed. Russell that he had no authority to do so, as Mr. Dayton was the man slated for nomination from the First Ward. Mr. Sproat had been substituted for an absent delegate and evidently had not received his instructions.

Messrs. Howell, Wiggins, Hanford and Harding were each in turn nominated by acclamation and a ballot was taken for the fifth candidate. Some one dropped an extra ballot in the hat and the vote of 3 for Mr. Powell, 13 for Mr. Denton and 13 for Mr. Dayton didn't count. On a second trial Mr. Dayton received 18 votes, Mr. Denton 16 and Judge Little 1, and Mr. Dayton was declared the nominee.

For Excise Commissioner John J. Cox was nominated by acclamation. D. F. Seward was made Chairman of the City Committee, J. B. Carson for First Ward, W. E. Robertson for Second, C. L. Mead for the Third and E. D. C. Crans for the Fourth and the convention adjourned, its members fully satisfied that it had done the slickest piece of work ever turned out in Middletown.

The Mayor's new machine is a daisy and no mistake.

Democratic Ward Primaries and City Convention.

The Democratic electors of the several wards of the city of Middletown, will meet in their respective wards, Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, to make their ward nominations and select delegates to a City Convention, to be held at 8:30 that evening, at the office of A. V. N. Powelson, Esq., to make city nominations.

The meeting places in the several wards will be as follows:

1st Ward—McQuoid Engine House,
2nd Ward—Phoenix Engine House,
3rd Ward—Commercial Hotel,
4th Ward—Holding House.

When so many people are taking and deriving benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it yourself? It is highly recommended.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Briefs submitted—Methodist Services—Good Templars—Boys' Brigade Celebration of Washington's Birthday—On a Southern Trip—A Slight Fire—Home from Old Point Comfort—Getting Better—Funeral of Miss Pryor.

From Our Regular Correspondent
—The attorneys in the suit of Thomas Barry, of Goshen, against the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company will submit briefs on the question to Referee C. W. Coleman, to-day. Mr. Coleman will render his decision in the matter during the next four days.

—Rev. S. T. White, having recovered from his recent illness, will resume charge of the services at the M. E. Church, to-morrow morning and evening.

—The recently organized lodge of Good Templars will, for the present, meet every Saturday night in G. A. R. Hall, on New street.

—The boys' brigade of the Presbyterian Church will celebrate Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, by giving an entertainment in Music Hall, commencing at 8 p. m. Patriotic addresses and war songs will be given, besides other interesting features. Admission ten cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Sanford, of this village, will sail at 4 o'clock, this afternoon, via the Old Dominion Line, from New York to Old Point Comfort. They will be absent several days.

—Fire was discovered in a kitchen closet in the residence of Mr. James Gregory, on West Main street, Thursday night. Just after the family had retired for the night Mr. Gregory smelled smoke and on investigating found several towels in the closet in flames. Some of the woodwork was on fire. The flames were extinguished before serious damage was done.

—Mr. Philip A. Powers, one of Goshen's popular druggists, returned home, yesterday, from a ten days' sojourn at the Hygeia Hotel, Old Point Comfort, Va.

—Mr. Wickham Young is improving rapidly, although still confined to his bed.

—The remains of Miss Augusta Tryon arrived in Goshen on train 1, this morning, from New York. The funeral services, held at 1 o'clock, this afternoon, in the Presbyterian Church, were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The body was taken to Middletown on the 3:22 train for interment in Hill-side Cemetery.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

A Pleasant Theatrical Entertainment in Prospect—Other Amusements—Public and Social—An Inconsiderate Ghost

From a Special Correspondent.

—The three act comedy, "A Lesson in Love," will be performed at Music Hall, under the auspices of St. James' Guild, on the evening of Monday, Feb. 25th, with the following cast of characters:

Orlando M. Denmark—(A sort of a savage) ...
Benjamin Babbalanja—(A victim of fatality) ...
Mr. J. B. Sawyer ...
Mrs. Leonard Sutherland—(A judicious ally) ...
Miss Anastasia Waterbury—(Lives but for the ideal) ...
Miss Edith Leslie—(Niece to Miss Waterbury) ...
Miss Juliette Burr

The ladies and gentlemen whose names figure in this cast, have done such good work in various entertainments of a similar character, that have been given during the last two or three years, that their re-appearance is a guarantee of the excellence of the performance, and no doubt they will be greeted by a full house. The music upon this occasion will be furnished by Berg's orchestra and after the conclusion of the play, the floor will be cleared for dancing. Tickets are now on sale at the drug store of Mr. Wm. O. Sayer.

—The "Boys' Brigade" will give an entertainment at Music Hall, on the evening of Washington's birthday. A large chorus, led by piano, cornet and flute, will sing war songs, and there will likewise be patriotic addresses. The performance will commence at 8 o'clock. Price of admission ten cents.

—Miss Adaline Thompson will give a birthday party to a number of her young friends, next Monday evening, at the home of her grandfather, in St. James place.

—It is a mystery to the commonplace mind how any one can derive comfort from being a spiritualist. It is so seldom that one hears of a ghost that conducts itself in such a fashion as to be a comfort to its survivors. The old time phantom that moved about in the silent watches of the night to an accompaniment of clanking chains and hollow groans must have been an intolerable nuisance, nor is the modern table rapping sort much more agreeable; there is nothing very consoling to a mourner in noise and tilting furniture. It is told of a young lady in Orange that every night a certain placque in her room was moved about mysteriously and by no human agency. She finally concluded that this was the means chosen by a recently deceased friend for communicating with her. It seems rather strange behavior on the part of a friendly ghost. the quality of our Rubber Hot Water Bottles by the price. They're as good as any, better than some. Formerly sold at larger profits with smaller sales; we've changed all that, buy in quantity at lower cost, sell at about half former prices, make less on a single one but sell ten times as many as formerly, leaving us a little to the good with much gain to the customer. Simple enough when explained, isn't it?

McMonagle & Rogers, Druggists.

Do you know how much more attractive your hands might be made by using a little Orange Flower Balm on them at night? Advertised for Chapped Hands, that's only one of its uses. It's to make the hands smooth, white and attractive, to prevent and cure hangnails, to keep them from getting rough, chapped and grimy. It's nearly as useful on your dressing stand as soap, but we'll make another story of that. Mothers use it on babes, all use it for themselves. Now do you see more clearly what Orange Flower Balm is? Why, some families have used it during the whole twenty five years we have made it.

FROM THE PULPIT.

Paine's Celery Compound Has Made Us Well.

We Advise the Sick to Take It.
Say the Clergymen.

Be Prepared for the Danger Season of Spring.

Aggressive Christianity is Possible with Health.

Pastors of All Sects Preach It East and West.

RATIONAL work distinguishes the pulpit. Doctrinal sermons today are at a discount. Ministers of the gospel, as if by a well-concerted plan, are now putting tremendous energy into the cause of good government and public health. Aggressive Christianity seems to be the pride of every denomination.

Flat-chested, sallow-cheeked, weak legged, watery-eyed clergymen are scarce; strong, vigorous, clear-headed, manly fellows are entering the seminaries.

That a well man is a better man than a sick one is no longer a heresy. Public baths, fresh air excursions, open parks, sunlight, physical training and proper medicines for the sick are all contributing to the work of home missions.

All sects appear to be entering with unusual activity into a practical reformation. Last week in Boston one of the greatest of its pulpits orators preached upon clean streets; in New York the churches have been breaking up political corruption. Money from the contribution boxes is going into hospitals. Many a young clergyman today takes a year or more, not in a trip to Europe to hear music and study cathedral architecture, and "round out" his education, but in a plain matter-of-fact medical school to learn anatomy and hygiene.

Most progressive ministers in every denomination today are recommending to their people the great remedy that makes people well, earnestly endorsing the work of Dartmouth college's generous scientist, and frankly lending their influence to that of the best physicians—advising generally the use of Paine's celery compound now that the "danger season of spring" is near.

The proprietors of this best of remedies now furnish a great quantity of testimonials from clergymen in every state, and almost every city and town in the country, from which the following are taken at random:

Rev. Charles C. Bruce.

From Somerville, Mass.: Boston's wealthy suburb, Charles Cromber Bruce, one of the ablest young pastors in the state, writes:

"I am nearly 38 years of age and weigh normally 158 pounds, at present my weight is 148. My sickness took me down to 134, so that you can see that I am getting back to myself, and, God willing, shall soon be there.

"I have been a very sick man, but owing to the goodness of the supreme powers I am now on the royal road whose end is perfect health.

"After 20 years a labor in studying and preaching, I was elected to a position in a high school in Boston, but the work told on me and I grew ill. The illness lasted for a year and a half. But now I am so that I can see the end, and I am a thankful man you never saw. A gentleman who had never seen me began to use Paine's celery compound and it built him up. I thought of this and soon I was led to use it, and it has brought me out all right."

St. Theresa's Rectory.

Mother Benson, writing from St. Theresa's Rectory, near Florida, Ill., says that "I have given Paine's celery compound a thorough trial, and found it to be all that is claimed for it. She adds: 'We shall continue to use it and recommend it to our friends.'"

Rev. T. E. Stauder.

The following testimonial from a man so widely known and beloved as Rev. T. E. Stauder, pastor of the Reformed Church of Lincoln, Neb., is a most positive proof of the wonderful medicinal power of Paine's celery compound and its great superiority over ordinary sarsaparillas, tonics and nervines.

"For nearly a year past I have felt myself running down. My nervous system is gradually growing worse; I had symptoms of rheumatism, and was troubled a good deal at times with indigestion. I felt that something must be done, and concluded to use Paine's celery compound. After the first few days I began to improve, and I am very much better now. Indeed, I feel like myself once more. All symptoms of rheumatism are disappearing. I can sleep well, my nervous system is improving and I believe a radical cure is being effected. Paine's celery compound is for all sufferers."

For All Sufferers.

Rev. Percy T. Penn, rector of St. John's, at Bonton, N. J., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to commend the use of Paine's celery compound to all those who are suffering from nervous troubles. I had suffered for two years with nervous prostration brought on by overwork and excessive study, and during this time had tried almost everything in the way of medicine, besides being treated by an eminent specialist in nervous diseases, but nothing helped me until I used Paine's celery compound. This remedy has been of great benefit to me, and I shall always recommend it to all sufferers."

The fact is, Paine's celery compound makes people well. Try it and be convinced.

The Venerable William A. Smith.

Rev. William A. Smith of Groton, Conn., after years of work, is still well and active. He writes:

"In my early days, by great prolonged mental suffering, I broke down in health and became a dyspeptic, being obliged at one time to give up work in the ministry on account of ill-health. I am now 53 years of age, and during my long life have suffered greatly from dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation and insomnia, at all times thinking I should die for the want of balmy sleep, and it is a wonder to me that I am alive to-day with all that I have been through."

"I have tried an endless amount of medicine, but lately I have been taking Paine's celery compound, and have all faith in its merits as adapted to my case. By the use of several bottles I so far recovered my health as to consider myself a well man for my age. It regulates the liver, stomach and bowels without any question. My appetite is now good, my sleep is refreshing, my liver active and bowels regular, and my crutches not needed, as I can walk without a staff. I am daily increasing in strength and improving generally, and hope that my youth will soon be renewed so that I can work as in bygone days. People are surprised at my improved appearance and activity."

New York City Clergyman.

Interviewed by a reporter in that city the other day, a large number of clergymen expressed the heartiest indorsement of Paine's celery compound. The interviews were published in the World. Here are a few of them:

Rev. H. L. Grantham, pastor of the French Presbyterian Church, who lives at 143 West 16th st., said: "I have frequently been relieved of nervous affections by the use of Paine's celery compound. I think it a most reliable remedy and shall recommend it whenever I have an opportunity."

Rev. R. D. Winn, pastor of the Abyssinian church said: "My career as a minister of the gospel has been hampered by the fact that for years I have suffered from nervousness. I consulted several specialists, who treated my case for months, but I must say that during the past few weeks I have received more benefit from one bottle of Paine's celery compound than from all the other medicines taken."

The recent indorsements of the great remedy by Rev. Fr. A. Ouellet, Rev. Mr. Lard, and other prominent divines have so recently been published that they are fresh in the public mind.

Rev. G. A. Emery.

Rev. G. A. Emery of Pittsfield writes:

"Paine's celery compound is the best medicine to be found and I very cheerfully recommend it to all who are in a run-down or exhausted condition. I have twice used it with most satisfactory results. For five years my work has been very heavy, especially so during the last two years. My conviction was that unless I found something to help me I must give up work as a minister, but I took Paine's celery compound and last year came out all right, without a vacation of so much as one Sunday. I recommend it to all as a wonderful nerve restorer."

Rev. B. S. Crosby.

Rev. B. S. Crosby of Bushon, N. Y., says:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to add my testimony to the effect of Paine's celery compound. For eight years I have suffered great pain in my back. Last April I was so weak and nervous that I arranged to go to Montreal for treatment, but three days before I expected to go a friend of mine urged me to take Paine's celery compound. I went that day and bought a bottle and commenced to take it, and before I had taken the first bottle I was free from pain in my back and could sleep sound, and am able to preach every Sunday."

"I will gladly answer any one who may write to me about it. I trust your business will continue to prosper until the end of the century, and the entire nation shall take Paine's celery compound and be revitalized."

Was Caused by Grip.

Rev. Dr. J. F. Hall of Mountainville is one of the best known ministers in southeastern Ohio. Mrs. Hall, whose life was despaired of, was restored to health by Paine's celery compound. She writes:

"The grip made a wreck of my natural good health. I suffered from continual headache, which nothing relieved, and nervousness which prevented sleep and caused me to have palpitation of the heart when startled by any unexpected noise or sound. I had distressing pains in my back and side, was constipated, bilious, and sallow complexioned. My pulse was very changeable, sometimes quick and at others scarcely perceptible, appetite poor, with a feeling of languor and weakness at times almost overcoming me. It seemed as if every organ in my body was diseased, and I was in despair of ever being well again. At times the grave seemed very near. I can never describe my terrible sufferings, and it would have been a great relief to have exchanged worlds, but like every mother, I would look upon my baby boy and cling to life."

"Not having much faith in advertised medicines, it was with reluctance that I began to use Paine's celery compound, but after the first dose I slept well. My improvement was rapid; I took six bottles and gained between 20 and 25 pounds in weight, and now I am fleshy, ruddy cheeked and clear complexioned, the wonder of all my friends. I do my own work and assist my husband in his labors as a minister of the gospel. I always tell the sick and suffering what this great compound has done for me."

A splendid remedy, and I can conscientiously commend it to the suffering in like cases. I further believe that if this medicine were taken in time it would save many heavy doctors' bills. I have never used a remedy of any kind that met its promises so well and so readily."

Editor of the Georgia Baptist.

The Rev. W. J. White, D. D., the editor of the Georgia Baptist, says: "My wife was in poor health. I think it a sort of general debility which caused severe attacks of heart palpitation. She was favorably impressed with Paine's celery compound and procured it at once. She felt benefited from the first bottle, and I see a decided improvement which is gratifying. We have spoken of this medicine to several friends, and several have already used it upon our recommendation."

Rector of St. Anne's, Nashville.

Rev. T. F. Martin, rector of St. Anne's Church at Nashville, gives his people confidence in the great curative powers of Paine's celery compound. He says:

"During the Lenten season last year, which, on account of multiplied services, is very trying and laborious to a clergyman, I became so run-down that I feared I would not be able to hold out to the end. Having seen accounts of the efficacy of Paine's celery compound in similar cases, I concluded to try it. I was soon delighted to find that it gave me new vigor, and by the use of one bottle, I was enabled to get through the most laborious part of the season, including Holy Week and Easterday, with ease and comfort. I attribute my relief to Paine's celery compound. I keep a bottle of it on hand and whenever I have a return of the feeling of exhaustion from unusual labor I take a few doses, always with a pleasant sensation of relief."

The Upper Iowa Conference.

Among the many very able ministers in the upper Iowa conference none is better beloved by his church than Rev. B. F. Berry. Read of the great good that Paine's celery compound did him.

"For three years I have suffered from indigestion, constipation and biliousness. I have taken three bottles of Paine's celery compound and find myself wonderfully helped. I feel rested now mornings, and no longer have any tired and sore feelings. Therefore I take great delight in recommending Paine's celery compound to all suffering from these disorders."

A CHURCH BURGLARIZED.

The First Congregational Church entered and the Ladies' Guild's Silverware Stolen.

Thieves broke into the First Congregational Church, last night, and carried away $60 worth of silver plated table ware, belonging to the Ladies' Guild of the church, and used by it at church suppers and similar entertainments.

Entrance was effected through one of the side windows of the main audience room of the church. The silverware was stored in a chest in a small room between the church and the study. This chest was broken open and its contents, with the exception of one spoon, were stolen. All of the stolen goods were engraved "Congregational Church."

Search was apparently made for the church's solid silver communion service, two closets having been broken open, but the thieves failed to find it.

A silk banner used by the children of the Sunday school was taken and fragments of the banner were found on East avenue, opposite the corner of Houston avenue. The snow around the broken window in the yard of the church was trampled down so much as to destroy all chances of tracing the footsteps of the thieves, of whom it is supposed there were several. A clay pipe, with the mouthpiece wound with cord, was found in the snow near the window.

There is to further clue to the thieves.

A ROW IN "LITTLE ITALY"

A Quarrel Over a Game of Cards Almost Leads to Bloodshed.

A dispute over a game of cards, and the effects of a quantity of stale beer, led to a quarrel in an Italian lodging house in School street, yesterday afternoon. Nicola Meola ran out of the house, followed by Pasquale Caprillo and John Mendro. At the corner of Montgomery street and Railroad avenue the men came together. One of the men was armed with a hatchet and Meola was getting the worst of the fight when his assailants were scared away by two other Italians, members of the Erie section gang, who were at work near by.

Meola made a complaint at police headquarters and Officers Wood and Durham went after his assailants.

They were sighted on Railroad avenue and broke into a run. Caprillo was captured by Officer Wood, after a hard chase, under the Sprague avenue bridge. Mendro escaped, but afterwards surrendered himself at headquarters.

Both men have been out of Albany penitentiary but a short time. Caprillo having been sent there about a year ago for obtaining goods under false pretenses, and Mendro for stealing lumber from Mr. J. D. Rockefeller.

The Recorder after hearing the evidence, this morning, made up his mind that the affair was only a drunken brawl and discharged Mendro with a reprimand. Caprillo went to jail in default of $5 fine.
